2007 REIVER SHIRAZ

Vineyard Region
Barossa Valley

91 Points

Polished, generous and silky in texture, this well-mannered wine is nicely packed with red fruit; accented plum and clove flavors that linger on the cream-tinged finish. Drink now through 2015.

Wine Spectator, January 2009, Harvey Steiman

92 Points

The 2007 Reiver Shiraz is opaque purple-colored with legs that ooze down the glass. Aromas of cedar, spice box, mineral, espresso, and wild blueberry are followed by an intense, sweetly fruited lengthy wine.

The Wine Advocate, February 2009, Jay Miller for Robert Parker

Silver Medal, Japanese Wine Challenge, July 2009

94 Points

Dense plum hue. Complex scents of black cherry, plum and mocha. Sweet flavors of blackberry and black cherry. Big, refined tannins and continued impressions of blackberry and mocha in the lingering close.
