92 POINTS

Wine Enthusiast, February 2017

90 POINTS

It's the kind of wine it pays to be on good terms with. It has everything tucked in a sure, sound place: fruit, tannin, acid and texture, all strung along a logical line.

James Halliday Aust. Wine Companion 2017, James Halliday, August 2016

90 POINTS

Vibrant and juicy, displaying good tension between the vivid red berries and currant flavours and accents of herb, cedar and cassis. Firm on the finish, with polished tannins. Drink now through 2020.

The Wine Enthusiast, Josh Reynolds, July 2016

SILVER MEDAL

Spicy, peppery, vegetal and herbaceous,' began Zuzanna Rogowska of M Restaurants, with team leader Sam Caporn MW finding plenty of 'black cherry notes with morello cherry on the finish, and nice structure.
