BRONZE

McLaren Vale Wine Show
2018

93 POINTS

Bright, youthful and beautifully lifted, the bouquet shows raspberry, apple, spice and grapefruit aromas, followed by an elegantly weighted palate that is lively and refreshing. Delightfully appealing and pleasingly dry on the finish. At its best: now to 2020.

Mitolo are to be commended for reaching for the Italian rooted Sangiovese for their rosé rather than McLaren Vale's signature Grenache. Pale salmon/dusky rose hue. Creamy citrus mandarin, cherry skin, strawberries & cream, smoky herbal hints with light musk stick and peach tea kiss. Completely dry, sweet-tooths need not apply. Chalky texture made fresh with juicy cherry and strawberry fruit. The finish is clean and maintains fruit, rather than simply presence. A chameleon for culinary pairing.
