SILVER MEDAL

Category- Shiraz, Australia, McLaren Vale $25.00 and lower.

Melbourne International Wine Competition, July 2017

88 POINTS

Plump and juicy, with an intense vibrancy to the blackberry, cherry and black pepper flavours. Cedar and spice notes linger on the firm finish. Drinking now through 2027.

Wine Spectator, June 2017

94 POINTS

Rich fruit cake nose and powerful on entry it rushes across the palate laying a rich carpet of flavour, its bold but nothing wrong with that, openly honest I think covers it.

Tony Keys, The Key Report, June 2017

BRONZE MEDAL

Julien Sahut of Sexy Fish found 'plum, cherry, olive and herbal aromas, then a lot of black fruit and plum dominating the palate with a spicy finish', and Mike Best of the WSET felt you should 'be decadent and have this wine with an awesome burger!'
