JESTER / SHIRAZ / McLAREN VALE / 2001

Robert Parker, *The Wine Advocate

91 points

‘The dense ruby coloured Jester reveals copious quantities of rich cassis and blackberry fruit, a gentle touch of wood, sweet tannin, surprising elegance and finesse, and fine flavour authority as well as density. Drink this creamy-textured shiraz over the next 7-8 years’.

Silver Medal

James Halliday – *Australian Wine Companion

89 points and 4*

Medium red-purple; the fresh bouquet has abundant blackberry, earth and spice aromas offset by vanillin oak; the vibrant palate has attractive blackberry and bitter chocolate flavours, the oak restrained and the tannins fine.

“This McLaren Vale red wine is the screwcapped little brother of several serious, concentrated shirazes. This one’s slightly lighter but no less ripe, chocolatey, plum-jammy and impressive. It’s rich, fleshy and lavishly fruity with dense, soft choc-mint flavours.” A$26

Huon Hooke - *Sydney Morning Herald, Good Weekend 17th May 2003

“This has much of the density, lushness and opulent sweet fruit of the other wines, but is made from declassified grapes from the same vineyards, an aged in older barrels. And it’s screw-capped for good measure..”.
