2015 G.A.M. SHIRAZ
McLAREN VALE

95 POINTS

A lavish and luxuriant wine effortlessly presenting a ripe, soft tannin basket of red and black fruits of every description. Oak also plays a role, but of lesser moment than the fruit, tannins and bitter dark chocolate flavours.

James Halliday Australian Wine Companion, August 2018

95 POINTS

Deeper and richer than the 2014, the 2015 Shiraz G.A.M. (which represents the initials of the Mitolo children) offers a smokin' good bouquet of mulled spices, chocolate, salted caramel, and licorice. This flows to a ripe, full-bodied, opulent Shiraz that has terrific depth of fruit, a layered mid-palate, sweet tannin, and a clean, balanced style that will evolve nicely for a decade or more.

95 POINTS, 5 STARS

A splendid expression of the variety, the instantly appealing bouquet shows blackberry, chocolate tart, cake spice, creamy oak and subtle game characters. The palate delivers superb weight and power, wonderfully complemented by sweet berry flavours and velvety texture, leading to a persistent silky finish. Multi-layered and seamless with graceful opulence. At its best: now to 2025. $60.00

Sam Kim Wine Orbit, October 2018

93 POINTS

Hints of menthol and toasty French oak accentuate the plums and mulberries on the nose of the 2015 GAM Shiraz. This is full-bodied, plush and rich on the palate, showing off the creamy texture and plush tannins of ripe McLaren Vale fruit. Hints of potpourri and dried spices linger on the long finish, adding complexity into the mix. In short, this beauty has it all. Drink now through 2030.

Robert Parker, February 2019

92 POINTS

Some tarry aromas with dark plum paste, chocolate panforte and biscuity spices. The palate is very succulent, gently grainy and fruit-soaked. The plums rule the finish. Drink now.
